

Audition notice

Wigan Little Theatre is proud to present 'Twelfth Night'. We would like to invite you to audition for an acting role or contact us if you would like to be part of the production in another area. For a description of each non-acting role, please see pages 3 and 4.

TWELFTH NIGHT by William Shakespeare

Directed by: Martin Green
Audition date: Sunday 29th September, 2pm at Wigan Little Theatre
Production dates: 25th February to 7th March 2020

Synopsis

A shipwreck, mistaken appearances, love and deception are the themes of Shakespeare's popular comedy. The darker side of cruelty will also figure in this production but expect to go on a stylish, fun and emotional journey to 'Illyria'.

Director's notes

The play has been adapted by the director to create a concise and clear version of this story for a present day audience. Please prepare for the audition from the version available – Act and Scene numbers do not correspond with traditional copies. Hard copies will be given to the whole company after casting is complete.

Rehearsals

Two weekday evenings to be arranged with the cast, plus Sunday afternoons on a regular basis. The plan is to rehearse for 8 weeks, take a 4-week break in December, and return in January with lines learned. Technical rehearsal will take place on the evening of Friday 21st February and the Dress Rehearsal on the afternoon of Sunday 23rd February.

Music is very important in 'Twelfth Night' so I would appreciate you letting me know about any skills with instruments (not essential).

Suggestions of age are a guide for the approximate relationships and playing age between actors concerned. If you are interested in a particular role but are unsure if you would be suitable, please check with the director beforehand.
