Consent

By signing this form, consent is given for photographs to be used in Wigan Little Theatre's publicity (including website and local publications). Also it is clearly understood that WLT cannot be held responsible for any friendships or communications formed through social networking sites as a result of becoming a members.

*Please note and retain

Any volunteer between the ages of 13- 16 years volunteering for a department will always be working as part of a group of volunteers of various ages.

Any person requiring a one to one chaperone will need to be accompanied to the theatre by an adult.

WLT is a voluntary organisation and offers a very high standard of service to its patrons. Volunteers must be willing to undertake training and strive to meet those standards and work independently. WLT does not have the capacity to provide ongoing one to one support for individuals.

You may wish to discuss further with the management team before paying your subscription.

Please email safeguarding@wiganlittletheatre.co.uk to arrange this.

Please take the time to read these documents before coming to the theatre, these are available on our website.
